

Speakers

Prof Richard Mellanby Liver disease and miR22 testing

Prof Dan Chan
Anti-thrombotics and consensus guidelines

Dr Sarah Caddy
Viruses in GI disease

Dr Silke Salavati
FMT in companion
animals

Professor Hawkey & Dr
Mohammed Nabil Qurashi
The human perspective on FMT

Dr Linda Matthewman Probiotics and prebiotics in small animals

Plus

Case report poster competition –
entries invited!

Research workshops

The SAMSoc Autumn meeting

A medicine medley: Advances in GI disease including faecal microbiota transplantation, liver disease testing and the use of anti-thrombotics

Friday 25th October 2019

Radcliffe Conference Centre, Warwick University, Coventry CV4 7SH

Online registration now open – for details visit: www.samsoc.org

Early bird offer ends 1st September: £100 SAMSoc members, £130 non-members

Normal rate: £150 SAMSoc members, £180 non-members

Graduating this year? We offer a limited number of places at £50 for new graduates, interns, residents and Certificate enrollees. Subject to availability.

Kindly sponsored by

